Re: CITATION # 1033193

Dear KUSHAGR BHATIA :

Please find enclosed your Court ordered instructions, DPS information for obtaining your driving record, and an affidavit (concerning driving record). Please sign and have the affidavit notarized. This will need to be returned with your certificate of completion (driver's safety course) and driver's record. If you have further questions please feel free to contact the Court. Thank you for your attention in this matter.

Respectfully,

Court Clerk

AFFIDAVIT

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF DRIVER'S SAFETY COURSE

Understand that you must complete a driving safety course within 90 days; submit on or before the 90 days the completion certificate of the defensive driving course; a notarized affidavit that a course was not being taken or completed on within the preceding 12 months; and a copy of your driving record as maintained by the Texas Department of Public Safety. If you comply with the terms and conditions of this court order, the Court will dismiss your case and report to the Texas Department of Public Safety the date the course was completed. Failure to comply with this court order as required, will result in a show cause hearing requiring you to appear and show cause why you did not present the required evidence. At this hearing a final judgment may be entered against you and require you to pay the fine. Failure to appear will result in a final judgment being entered against you, and a Capias Pro Fine warrant being issued for your arrest and/or your license being suspended.

*Provisional Driver's License holders required to re-examined for Driver's License and return proof to the Court the 21st day of October, 2024
